Adventures with BRN

A voluminous experience awaits

As a low maintenance person, I heard of but gave little thought to trying blow dry bar services. Knowing several recent blow dry bar converts, their glowing reviews were intriguing.

For background, a hair and beauty bar offers a variety of hair and makeup services to help you look and feel beautiful inside and out. Getting ready for the day is frustratingly timeconsuming to me therefore, the dry bar sounded like a convenient service I might consider some day. Recently, that convenience and a broken arm drove me to the bar.

I didn't expect to be blown away by the Blo Dry Bar

Driving up to Blo, the hot pink sign stands out against the building set off Ridge Road. As I entered the front door, I found décor - tastefully decorated for Valentine's Day. I was graciously welcomed and Savanna, my stylist, spent a few minutes talking about style preferences, ideas and suggestions. I opted for the classic blow out which is simply a shampoo and style.

Savanna and I conversed easily as she expertly dried my hair, gently gathering sections and creating smooth, gentle waves with what seemed like little effort. Admittedly I watched hoping that somehow, I might be able to recreate that look on my own. Looking in the mirror a short time later, I was overjoyed that my hair looked amazing and felt better than it had in years!

Blo, recently opened in Rockwall, offers a lengthy list of hair and makeup services in a comfortable, fashionable environment. Additional services include extensions, Up Dos and more. For special occasions and events, the Blo on the Go at your location and bridal and party packages are available.

But wait, there's more! Makeup services offer a full-face look or select specific options like lashes, eyes, lips, etc. Whether you are looking to make your day-to-day more convenient or have a special event or occasion, Blo has an expert ready to help you shine!

I tossed my hair around for a few days and excitedly made my next appointment. I now consider myself a new Blo convert and am planning to try makeup services too.

Heath DPS earns 'Accredited Law Enforcement Agency' award

JOB

The Heath Department of Public Safety has received the Accredited Law Enforcement Agency Award from the Texas Police Chiefs Association Law Enforcement Accreditation Program.

Begun in 2006, the Accreditation Program evaluates a Police Department's compliance with 168 Best Business Practices developed by Texas Law Enforcement professionals to assist agencies in the efficient and effective delivery of service and the protection of individual's rights. These Best Practices cover all aspects of law enforcement including use of force, protection of citizen rights, vehicle pursuits, property and evidence management, and patrol and investigative operations.

"This voluntary process required Chief Brandon Seery and his team to conduct an intense and extensive critical self-review of their policies, procedures, facilities and operations," said Rockwall Police Chief Edward Fowler, who is an assessor with the Texas Police Chiefs Association and presented the accreditation at the February 28 City of Heath Council meeting.

Heath DPS began the process in June 2020 by preparing proofs of compliance for each of the Texas Law Enforcement Best Business Practices. Upon completion of the internal review, an outside onsite audit was requested, which was conducted in December 2022 by trained Police Chiefs from throughout Texas. Results of the review were sent to the Texas Police Chiefs Association's Accreditation Committee for final analysis, where a unanimous decision to award the "Accredited" status was made.

"We consider our Heath DPS to be one of the best agencies in the state," said Mayor Kelson Elam. "This independent review by Texas law enforcement professionals and awarding of the accreditation confirms our belief and pride in Chief Seery and his officers."

Heath DPS is one of only 191 agencies in Texas to achieve this distinction, representing the top 7 percent statewide.

Where healing begins...

nonprofit's work continues year-round, 24 hours a day. Their dedicated team of forensic interviewers, family advocates and therapists - along with their partner agencies - stand JJ Villarreal, Rockwall ISD Superintendent; and Director Emeritus, Kenda Culpepper, ready to begin the process of hope and healing the moment a child makes an outcry.

"The Children's Advocacy Center is the only agency of its kind in our community. We work collaboratively with partner agencies to streamline an often complex and disturbing process," said Patricia Mejia, President and CEO of the CACRC. "An abused child often carries a tremendous amount of shame, guilt, and fear. When they find the courage to finally make a disclosure, they want nothing more than for the abuse to stop. The Children's Advocacy Center offers a safe, secure, and confidential environment - a place where children are seen, heard, and believed. The CAC is where healing begins."

CACRC partner agencies include law enforcement. Child Protective Services, the District Attorney's office, medical and mental health professionals. Together they reduce re-victimization of the child, remove barriers to investigation and treatment, and enhance criminal prosecution with a distinctive multidisciplinary and united approach.

Kenda Culpepper, Rockwall County DA and CACRC Director Emeritus, said, "The DA's Office is proud to work alongside the CAC. As a co-founder of the CAC eight years ago, I had hoped to improve services to children affected by abuse by helping to coordinate medical services, forensic interviews, and counseling. The CAC has delivered on these hopes and gone so much further than I ever knew to be possible. Not only have they hired top notch staff to provide needed services, but they have also worked hard to increase awareness in our community, improved collaboration with law enforcement partners, and helped to provide a safe place for children and adolescents to talk and heal."

Rockwall County Sheriff Terry Garrett, who also serves on the CACRC Board of Directors, said, "The formation of the CAC has been a partnership that has been long needed in our community. The commitment to providing a consistent, trustworthy service to the children of our community has been a force multiplier in the investigation of crimes against children."

Texas Health Hospital Rockwall is home to a Safe Suite and Sexual Assault Response Team in Rockwall. Baylor, Scott & White-Lake Pointe also partners with the CAC. "We take the role of protecting the health and wellbeing of children very seriously. An important part of that commitment is our collaboration with the CACRC and our support of their Go Blue for Kids Gala. Additionally, we are ambassadors and advocates by being a SAFE-Ready facility and by providing level III trauma care, pastoral care and more," BSW-LP said in a statement.

"We hope all of Rockwall County will go blue with us," Mejia said. "We couldn't do what we do without a caring community, generous donors and dedicated volunteers – not to mention our partner agencies, a heroic staff, and our powerhouse of a Board. We also have a growing team of 'Blue Tie Guys' - colleagues in the community who serve as champions for children in Rockwall County by speaking out about child abuse dynamics."

The CACRC Executive Board comprises President Rick Carroll, Regional President of Inwood Bank; Vice President Felicia Oliphant, Rockwall County DA's Office; Treasurer Kevin Hadawi, Wells Fargo; Secretary Dawn Redig, Blue Ribbon News; Parliamentarian Kids Gala.

International of Rockwall.

Directors include John Beaman, Merchant Masters; Mayor David Billings, City of Fate; Goodwin Group; Taryne Dismuke, Royse City ISD; Terry Garrett, Rockwall County Sherriff; This year's campaign culminates with a CACRC fundraising gala on April 29, but the Eva Hummel, Atmos Energy; Janet Nichol, Rockwall County Commissioner; Leigh-Ann Riley, DFPS CPI Program Administrator; Sheri Starkey-Parks, SMU; Cindy Tayem, Oncor; Rockwall County DA.

> "Our community has beautifully coalesced around the CAC, supporting it with their prayers, time and gifts," Culpepper said.

Among the ways to show your support: attend the kickoff party and gala; shop local "go blue" business supporters; buy a "go blue" t-shirt or yard sign; attend Pinwheels for Prevention from 6-7 p.m. April 6 at the Historic Rockwall County Courthouse; wear blue on Friday, April 7, Go Blue Day; participate in Prayer Sunday on April 30; and tie a blue ribbon around your mailbox, tree, or car antenna. Learn more at rockwallcac.org.

Growing Demand

The CACRC has served over 2,438 children and their families since opening its doors for full services in 2018. Unfortunately, as the population of Rockwall County grows, so does the need for services.

"The number of kids served by the CACRC has increased dramatically – from 179 children in 2018 to 857 last year," said Mejia. "Our current space – the "Soroptimist House" in Rockwall – has served us well. But as the size of our staff has grown to meet the demand, the size of the facility has remained the same, challenging our ability to provide a trauma informed approach."

The CACRC is in the beginning stages of planning for future growth, so that no child in Rockwall County is turned away.

Go Blue for Kids Kickoff Party

As Go Blue for Kids Kickoff Chair, Rachael Schmidt is responsible for coordinating the Go Blue for Kids Kickoff Party. The family-friendly event will be 3:30 to 7 p.m. Thursday, March 30 at Standard Service in Heath.

"This year will be our biggest kickoff event yet," said Schmidt. "Our Kid Zone, sponsored by White Star Logistics, will include a bouncy slide, rock wall for climbing, balloon artists and more. There will be a photo booth sponsored by Lithic LLC, cotton candy sponsored by Graves Roofing & Restoration, and performances from Rockwall Dance Academy, Greater Rockwall Youth Symphony, and an acoustic set by Johnny Lyons. We want to give a huge thanks to Frost Bank who serves as the kickoff event's Title Sponsor."

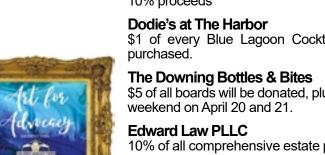

While there, stop by the Teddy Bear Mobile Booth where folks will be making stuffed animals for purchase. You may choose to donate a bear back to the CAC!

Tickets and sponsorships are available for the CACRC's signature event, the 7th Annual Go Blue for Kids Gala, on Saturday, April 29 at The Venue at Boyd Farm. The evening will include dinner, drinks, live music, an aerialist, silent and live auctions, dancing, and fireworks.

The Rose Table: Making Brunch at the Barn a 'mane' event

I decided to have some horsey fun by hosting Brunch at the Barn with my horse Wendy at beautiful Laurel Ridge Stables in Rowlett. I set up • Bacon and Cheese Egg Cups a table in front of Wendy's stall adorned with a white tablecloth, pink and white flowers, and glamorous gold touches. Since I was hosting • Makes 12 away from my home, I needed a make-ahead brunch menu that would transport well. I • 5-6 slices thick-cut bacon • 12 farm fresh eggs • 8 oz cheddar cheese, grated served super easy bacon and cheese egg cups that have a magical souffle-like texture, maple • 1 Tbsp chives, chopped • Sea salt, black pepper blueberry sausage, my famous banana bread from The Rose Table cookbook with bourbon honey butter, an orange-vanilla coffee cake, and mango berry fruit salad.

After brunch, I took my friends for a little carriage ride courtesy of Dolly the Haflinger. It • 2. Cut bacon into lardons and fry in a nonstick skillet over medium heat until was the ultimate Sunday Funday at The Rose Table! As always, read all about the party on therosetable.com and watch the full episode on The Rose Table's Facebook page or YouTube Channel. Here's how to make my amazing bacon and cheese egg cups – the perfect quick • weekday breakfast. They're delicious cold, room temperature, or warm from the oven.

A River That No One Could Cross

far side of the lake seemed reachable in my twelve-year-old mind. The water was calm, and no boats were out at the time. So, with only my younger brother around to approve or protest, I decided to swim across the entire lake. About halfway to my goal, I had a muscle cramp. Remembering my swimming lessons, I turned to float on my back and then hand-paddled to regain the shore.

But that was a lake. I've never ventured to swim across a river since, in general, they are unpredictable. Like a lion at the zoo, they may look placid and non-threatening. But step inside and your perception might change rapidly. A severe drop-off or some passing debris could sweep you off your feet. An undercurrent could carry you away.

Many people (including me at one time) believe that our own personal goodness should be sufficient for God's approval. But we are mistaken to hope that good deeds and moral character (sometimes superficial) could merit Heaven. Jesus warned the religious leaders against such false confidence (Luke 18:9 – 12*). Instead, he explained that our justification must come by trusting in God's mercy (vv. 13 - 14).

Jesus showed mercy to a less-than-righteous woman as they stood beside a well in Samaria. He told her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life" (John 4:13 - 14).

The Lord repeated that promise to a crowd of people who argued about whether or not to believe in him as the Messiah. Jesus stood and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, streams of living water will flow from within him" (John 7:37 - 38).

Foreshadowing those words, the Old Testament prophet Ezekiel had a vision of a temple with a river "that no one could cross.... [and] where the river flows everything will live" (Ezekiel 47:5, 9).

In a similar vision recorded in the last two chapters of the Bible, the apostle John saw "the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb" (Revelation 22:1).

The 18th-century Bible scholar Matthew Henry connected those two descriptions of the ever-flowing river. He interpreted them as the ever-spreading influence of the gospel. Henry said, "Christ is the temple; he is the door; from him those living waters flow.... It is by believing in him that we receive rivers of living water... continual supplies of God's divine grace."

While our moral living and good deeds may please God and bless mankind, our salvation depends upon the grace and mercy God has provided through his Son.

Jesus is "the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world" (John 1:29). On the

Cooking with Ease

Reppin' Rockwall with big wins in South Texas

Did you know Rockwall County is the smallest county in Texas? It is! But I have to say, we Rockwallites get around. Recently, Evan and I drove down to South Texas for a Boudin & Gumbo Festival. We entered the boudin competition for what would be our FIRST time competing in a food contest south of Dallas. The contest rules stated, "Boudin can be any type or form. Be creative! Stretch the limits of what boudin is, or can become!" so we decided to make Deep Fried Beef Boudin On A Stick.

Most people know Evan and I love the State Fair of Texas. Our anniversary is in March, which means it's been six years since we hosted "Tate Fair of Texas." We turned Tate Farms into our very own state fair, equipped with corny dogs, turkey legs, cotton candy, games, prizes and a real Ferris wheel. So Boudin Corny Dogs just made sense.

Before heading south, we perfected our boudin recipe by cooking down some of our own Tate Farms beef; chicken livers from one of our Rockwall Farmers Co-Op farmers; fresh veggies; rice; and a whole lot of crossed fingers. I've fried a lot of things on a stick, and eaten even more, but this would be the first time deep frying boudin.

As we started setting up our table at the contest, we recognized our neighbors. In a crazy coincidence, we were set up right next to another Rockwall County business, Smoak Town BBO from Fate Food Haul. Four hours from home, and here we are, side by side and in competition with another crew out of Rockwall.

The day went wonderfully. The weather was beautiful. The fryers were hot. The boudin was kickin'! There were approximately 30 contestants offering up their best creations.

Smoak Town BBO served Chicken Fried Boudin Balls with Housemade Jalapeno Ranch, which was the only thing ate besides Boudin Corny Dogs and it was delicious.

When the judges' tallies came in, we were shocked, elated, giddy and tickled that Smoak Town BBQ from Fate was the Grand Prize Boudin winner (1st prize) and Tate Farms, from Rockwall, was the Freak of Nature Boudin winner (3rd prize).

The smallest county in Texas took home two out of three winning spots in a south Texas cook-off!

Now that's something to write home about...which is exactly what I'm doing! We are so lucky to live in a community with such talented chefs, bakers, farmers, ranchers, writers, makers, and more. As we gear up for our own big event at Tate Farms – Texas Pie Fest – I would like to encourage all of our Rockwall friends to get out and support the accomplished businesses that exist within these 149 square miles. You can find Smoak Town at Fate Food Haul in Downtown Fate every Wednesday thru Saturday, 11 a.m. until sold out.

And as for us, Tate Farms, we are right where we have been for the last 60 years. Raising cattle, selling beef, boarding horses, putting on events for our neighbors, and cooking up some great food. Visit our website at tatefarmstx.com for more info, find us at the Rockwall Farmers Market when it opens this spring, and come out to the farm for our largest event of the year, TEXAS PIE FEST on April 22 from 10am-4pm. We would love to see you, meet you, and feed you.
