LOVE LETTERS

By A. R. Gurney

LOVE LETTERS was the first show performed in RCP's newly purchased facility in 1998 and by popular demand we are bringing it to the stage once again as we excitedly begin our 26th season. LOVE LETTERS has been performed on Broadway numerous times and was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize for Drama. The play centers on two characters, Melissa Gardner and Andrew Makepeace Ladd III. Using the epistolary form sometimes found in novels, they sit side by side at tables and read the notes, letters and cards – in which over nearly 50 years, they discuss their hopes and ambitions, dreams and disappointments, victories and defeats that have passed between them throughout their separated lives.

THE BOYS NEXT DOOR

By Tom Griffin

THE BOYS NEXT DOOR deals with four intellectually disabled men who live together in a small apartment - and Jack, the caring social worker who is on the verge of career burnout. The story takes place over roughly a two month period and consists of brief vignettes about the men's lives. This story will pull at your heartstrings, charm you with antics, and not soon be forgotten.

PRIDE & PREJUDICE

By Jane Austen

This isn't your grandmother's Austen! Bold, surprising, boisterous, and timely, this P&P for a new era explores the absurdities and thrills of finding your perfect (or imperfect) match in life. The outspoken Lizzy Bennet is determined to never marry, despite mounting pressure from society. But can she resist love, especially when that vaguely handsome, mildly amusing, and impossibly aggravating Mr. Darcy keeps popping up at every turn? Literature's greatest tale of latent love has never felt so theatrical, or so full of life than it does in this effervescent adaptation. Because what turns us into greater fools...than the high-stakes game of love?

LEADING LADIES

By Ken Ludwig

In this comedy two English Shakespearean actors, Jack and Leo, find themselves so down on their luck that they are performing "Scenes from Shakespeare" on the Moose Lodge circuit in the Amish country of Pennsylvania. When they hear that an old lady in York, Pennsylvania is about to die and leave her fortune to her two long lost English nephews, they resolve to pass themselves off as her beloved relatives and get the cash. The trouble is, when they get to York, they find out that the relatives aren't nephews, but nieces!

CINDERELLA

Music by Richard Rodgers / Book and Lyrics by Oscar Hammerstein II

The timeless enchantment of a magical fairy tale is reborn with the Rodgers & Hammerstein hallmarks of originality, charm and elegance. With a wicked stepmother and two jealous stepsisters who keep her enslaved and in rags, Cinderella stands no chance of attending the royal ball. When her fairy godmother appears and magically transforms her reality into a dream come true, Cinderella enchants the handsome Prince Charming at the ball, but must face the wrath of her enraged stepmother and sisters when the spell wears off at midnight.
